

PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES/ COURSE OUTCOMES

BACHELOR OF ARTS (B.A)

1. ENGLISH (HONS)

Course Outcomes of English

English (hons) is an impactful undergraduate course that takes students through the best in world literatures. The syllabus is rigorous in its coverage of important literary texts and thus stands students in good stead in their future professional endeavors. Papers range from Indian to American to British traditions to lively and immediate contemporary authors and poets; students will read widely in different genres including poetry, plays and novels, besides acquiring critical thinking skills that will enable and empower them academically and personally.

2. NEPALI (HONS)

Course outcomes of Nepali

Students taking Nepali as their Honors subject will have an upper hand in the said Language: linguistics and comparative study. After the completion of the said Honors course, students can have various career options as teachers, interpretations, journalists, and many others.

3. LEPCHA

Course Outcomes of Lepcha

Students taking Lepcha as their honors course have to study about the Lepcha novels, stories, poems and drama. Studies about Lepcha folksong, folkdance, folk stories, folk poems, and the history and culture of the Lepcha's are also given equal importance. After having successfully completing the course, students will have a career options like language teacher, writer, and editors.

4. BHUTIA

Course Outcomes of Bhutia

Students pursuing Bhutia as their Honors subject will have language proficiency and can become well versed in Bhutia prose, poetry, prosody and Bhutia literature and Grammar. They can pursue careers as Language teachers, authors, editors, etc.

5. LIMBOO

Course Outcomes of Lepcha

The Limboo (hons) course entails studies of the Limboo literature , phonetics, its history and culture, Limboo folk songs, folk dance, folk story and folk poems apart from its arts and culture, food habits, dress and ornaments, grammar and others. After successfully completing this course students can aim to become Language teachers, writer and editors.

6. HISTORY

Course Outcomes of History

A study of History of the undergraduate level familiarizes students with the contours of Indian, World and Sikkim History and gives them an understanding of the nature of history as a discipline. The course enables students to pursue a career in education, civil services, research, journalism, law, media, travel and tourism. History honors student gets acquainted with the History of India(Ancient, Medieval and Modern) and also of the history of China-Japan, history of Sikkim, history of Europe, etc.

7. GEOGRAPHY

Course Outcomes of Geography

A study of Geography of the undergraduate level entails the study of Physical Geography and Human and Economic Geography. Besides this the practical courses imparts training and skills of map making, field survey, and research. The classroom teaching is sufficiently supplemented by the invited lectures, workshops, and field excursions. The discipline of geography develops analytical and integrating skills, as a result of which students can venture into research organizations like Council for Social Research, World Wildlife Fund(WWF).Besides going in for traditional fields of academics and teaching, they can also get into Urban and Regional Planning, environmental planning, and tourism.

8. PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Course Outcomes of Physical Education

The Department of Physical Education provides training in athletics, cricket, football and taekwondo. Professional training in these games helps the students to prepare and participate in Inter-College, State and National level competitions. By participating and getting position in these aforesaid competitions help the students to get admission in the various professional courses in the field of Physical Education and Sports Sciences. The Department also takes care of activities where training is given to aerobics, yoga and taekwondo.

9. SOCIOLOGY

Course Outcomes of Sociology

Sociology as a discipline is a scientific study of interactions between society and individuals, focusing on the social interactions and the patterns that emerge out of these interactions. It focuses primarily on the influence of social relationships upon people's attitudes and behaviors and on how societies are established. As individuals are products of social environment, the discipline of sociology makes a positive contribution to the overall development of students. Students taking Sociology as their honors course can gain employment opportunities in the fields of law, social work, education, human resource development, public policy, mass communications, non - profit organizations and international affairs.

10. POLITICAL SCIENCE

Course Outcomes of Political Science

The Department of Political Science is dedicated to understanding and explaining the various meanings and practices of politics. The department prepares students not only to be active citizens of the country but also helps them develop an analytical thinking so that they can critically engage with the issues concerning the state and its policies. The focus of the undergraduate course in this particular subject is to provide an understanding of political institutions, political behavior, political theory, political processes, comparative politics, and political thought.

11. ECONOMICS

Course Outcomes of Economics

The Economics Department takes pride in being among the best departments for the study of economics at the undergraduate level. The teaching methodology combines standard methods of University education – lectures and tutorials – with written assignments, project work, field trips, and student's presentations both in class and in seminars. Students taking Economics as their honors course are taught the characteristics, features, changes in Economy; New Economic Reforms, function and role of banking, financial market and banking reforms. They are also made to understand concepts and theories of macro economics, consumption patterns, investment, prices, interest rate, trade, taxes and international economies.

12. EDUCATION

Course Outcomes of Education

This Programme instills in its students human values and familiarizes them with practical problems and solutions involved in the field of education. Students are taught study of sociological and philosophical foundation of education; understanding theories of learning ; understanding the development of education in India; Pre and Post merger education at primary, secondary and higher secondary level; understanding the problems and prospects of universalisation of education and others. Job prospects for students taking Education as their Honors course are teaching, administrative and academic field.